PAPERED WALLS

Wallpaper is a fabulous way to add energy, personality and style to your home. Whether you seek a bold pattern, subtle texture or even a large custom mural, the variety of options is endless.

BRINGING RESENE WALLPAPER into your home is very similar to selecting a new piece of art. It needs to either fit in with your current scheme or it may be a starting point for a whole new look. Take time to look through options and see which patterns grab your attention. Explore a variety of sheens, textures and colours.

While it is possible to view wallpaper patterns online as a starting point, I would highly recommend experiencing them for yourself. There is nothing quite like flicking through wallpaper books at your Resene ColorShop and seeing the vibrant colours and textures really come to life.

The variety of styles available feels almost endless with patterns to suit everyone. From blooming botanicals, vivid geometrics and classic textures to hand-drawn illustrations and faux effects, we are spoilt for choice. Or for those who can't find their perfect paper, why not create your own using Resene WallPrint? Simply upload your own high-quality photo or choose from a gallery of images, adjust the scaling and you have the perfectly sized, bespoke feature wall. Once you've finished your design, Resene WallPrint is printed onto wallpaper, ready to be hung.

Take care when selecting a new wallpaper that it meets your needs. There is plenty of information to be found in the Resene wallpaper books including how washable the wallpapers are, whether the wallpaper has good or moderate light fastness and how to install and hang. It is also worth checking the size of the wallpaper roll. Generally, wallpaper rolls are 53 cm x 10 m but there can be variables in size depending on the pattern. ●
