

WINNER N° 3

MAKING an ENTRANCE

Nikki McColl, the third winner of our Making an Entrance competition in conjunction with Resene, says her choice of Resene Pretty In Pink for the front door was in keeping with the Palm Springs vibe of the rest of her home – and pink is her favourite colour. “My two daughters, Ruby and Mila, were especially excited, and helped me choose which pink to paint it,” Nikki says. All her friends love the colour choice, and she says, to her surprise, even her husband Phil loves the shade. “To be honest, I didn’t think he would agree so when he said yes I was quite surprised!” She had already painted the door when she happened across the palm tree door knocker while on a girls’ weekend away in Byron Bay, Australia, and “knew it would match perfectly”. And it does.
