

dare to be bold

A sizzling urban courtyard.

With a bit of Mexican sizzle and a dash of California cool, this courtyard is the place to be on those lazy summer days.

Black is a go-to colour for garden fences, often as a shadowy backdrop to perimeter planting. In this case, it's up front and on show in Resene CoolColour All Black – the ultimate colour partner for sizzling turquoise blues and clean greens like Resene Dauntless for the upcycled pallet table, and Resene Ziggurat, Resene Java and Resene Dali for the pots. Throw in some mustard yellow accents in the low Resene Chenin pot and cushions for pops of citrusy warmth.

The house wall on the right is Resene Double Truffle, and the concrete pavers have been stained in Resene Bleached Grey from the Resene Concrete Stain range. Just add a cocktail and you're ready to relax.

For a new twist on the colour blocking trend, two shelves and a door in the wall unit have been picked out in Resene Sweet Spot; the rest of the unit is in Resene Seashell.

upcycle a pallet

Upcycle a pallet to make a low mobile outdoor coffee table. We've painted this one in Resene Dauntless, then attached some castors on the bottom, and it's ready to roll.

more set-down space

Extend your benchtop space by adding a country-style sideboard to the kitchen. This one is painted in Resene Inside Back to create a tonal scheme with the Resene New Denim Blue splashback and the Resene Half Duck Egg Blue wall.
