

Above: Resene Zylone SpaceCote in Resene Deep Chocolate features on walls in the formal living room. This colour is from the Resene Heritage range.

Right: Resene Nelson Red, from the same collection, makes a dramatic statement in the master bedroom. Resene Zylone SpaceCote is a low-sheen, low-odour, waterborne enamel.

Bold colours introduce a sense of drama and intimacy to both the formal living room and the master bedroom. They also make a strong contrast to the neutral shades used elsewhere.

Both Resene Deep Chocolate, which features in the living room, and Resene Nelson Red in the bedroom are from the Resene Heritage range. As the name suggests, this collection features colours that capture the essence of New Zealand's architectural heritage.
